All movies will eventually run their course. Those that stay or make an impact are the ones that allow us to vicariously live something that may be unattainable or out of reach, like hope, love, success, joy or courage. Other impactful movies may voice a shared inner conviction (faith, freedom, morality) and give us a larger sense of community and acceptance.

We at 16:14 Entertainment like to call such things 'Pearls'. They give movies like those mentioned above legs to stand the test of time and the ability to touch the human spirit.

These 'pearls' are the filter in which 16:14 Entertainment sifts all its projects and relationships through. So that we, like those great movies that have touched us all, will too stand the test of time.
